Gedship, Roy Gray, minor; May 26 day hearing return of sale of real estate.

PURCHASES BUSINESS PROPERTY.

Mr. Harry Ross, county treasurer, has purchased the old Oriental block at the corner of Fifth and Allen Streets.

Mr. Ross purchased the building from Ben Goodrich, Charles Tarnell and Mrs. M. D. Scribner.

The property is one hundred feet front on Fifth street, which in reality is the side of the building, the main or entrance will be on Allen Street.

All new plate glass fronts will be put in and workmen are rebuilding now. The corner store will be occupied by Everybody's Drug Store, which will be owned and conducted by Ernest Ivey.

This improvement on Tombstone's main thoroughfare will be most acceptable to the people at large, having been an eye-sore for many years. At one time the corner was used as a saloon and gambling house and paid the owners at that time twenty-five dollars a day rent.

SUPERVISORS ON TRIP OF INSPECTION

Supervisor John Rock, and Clerk of the Board A. C. Karger left this afternoon for Bisbee and Douglas, where they will join Chairman Sparks and Vance Johnson, the other members of the board, and from there the party will leave for a tour of the county.

The trip at this time is in the nature of an inspection trip, during which the board will designate the polling places for the coming primary and general elections, besides securing information on the election officers, which, according to law the board must name at their meeting in June.

From Douglas the board will travel through the Sulphur Spring Valley, reaching McNeal Gleason, Courtland, Pearce, White-water, Servoss, Wilcox, Cochise, Bowie, San Simon, Paradise, etc., and in fact every precinct and voting place in that part of the county, where they will secure data, returning to Douglas, and back to Tombstone, after which they will travel the balance of the county. They expect to be absent until Saturday on the present trip.

LOOKING BACKWARD TWENTY-FOUR YEARS

Many Democrats in the Democratic convention voted for Nugent, of Yuma, believing, it is said, that they were voting for our worthy Presbyterian divine, C. R. Nugent. Sheriff Nugent of Yuma county should at least join the church after this bit of good luck.

The telegraph tells us that one of the robbers, who held up the Deeding stage and killed the messenger, was "Arizona Pete." Arizona has enough to answer for without being brought in on every California killing, just to make the story more interesting.

There is very little property to sell for taxes this year and the sales held each day by the treasurer are not spirited. Taxes in Cochise county were never before paid up so closely as this year.

The stage line between Tombstone and Fairbanks is the only one in Arizona that carries Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express matter.

Chas. Granville Johnston is ready to register votes at his office on Fremont street.

W. K. Meade received a dispatch this afternoon saying: "Zerkendorf has been removed, and you have been appointed World's Fair Commissioner. Your commission forwarded tomorrow."

The Old Guard Company settled up their county taxes today by drawing a check for $547 in favor of the county treasurer.

An agent of the cyanide process who has been visiting Dos Cabezas. He will make a report to his backers and something may come out of it.

The Nogales Advertiser reports another Mexican's body having been found about 75 miles southeast of Nogales with the head cut off.

The Drinkwater party went to Turquoise yesterday and examined St. Bryant's mine. They are well pleased with the property and surprised at its magnitude.

Wood is hauled from the Swisshelm mountains to the Soldier Holes mill and corded for $5.70 per cord. When the mills and mines were running in this district in full blast the price was from $9 to $13 hauled from the mountains.

President W. O. O'Neil, of the Arizona World's Fair Commission, left Phoenix today for Chicago where he goes to arrange for space for our exhibit at the World's Fair.

It is probable that the total amount of valuation of property in the city will fall short of last year less than $10,000.

C. W. Fugh, the editor of the Willcox Stockman, came over today from Miles county and will spend the Sabbath in the metropolis. Mr. Fugh publishes the only stock paper in the territory, and it is a credit to the industry which it fosters.

W. T. Cooper, of Dos Cabezas, who pioneered that corner of Cochise county, came in today from that camp.

Joe McPherson went to Turquoise today to arrange for hauling ore from the Silver Bell mine to Sildiers Holes.

Dr. Warnke is in Southern California practicing dentistry.

At the Bisbee school yesterday, after placing Master Edwin Hughes, in the chair, the pupils argued at length the question whether the United States was justified in removing the Indians from their homes.

The speeches of Albert Whittier, Charlie Bellinger, Walter Bowman and Charlie Keller are deserving of special mention and show plainly that all the boys need is practice to become speakers of no mean ability. The question on a vote was decided against the United States by 6 to 5.

The president has nominated N. A. Morford, secretary of Arizona. The territory has won a trick and the people have lost a good newspaper man.

Phoenix is coming to the front as the champion murder section of the United States. No less than ten reports of murders have been sent out from there in the last two weeks.

The Associated Press correspondent at that place should send out a rumor of a birth once in a while just so as to quiet the impression that the population is being depleted with no increase to offset it.

The report of the grand jury was longer than any yet contributed by a similar body in Cochise county. It made some suggestions regarding county affairs, but startled the people by not entering into a fight over the hospital and its management. This is the first grand jury that has not found fault with the institution, and the public rejoices that at last this bone of contention has been picked clean.

Resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Judge Berry were read and adopted by the bar this afternoon at the district court room, after which remarks were made by a number of members of the bar.

C. S. Fly is in San Pedro, New Mexico. This camp is one of the liveliest in that territory and is where the Lincoln Lucky mine is located. Mr. Fly writes that Tombstone has more money in circulation per capita than any place he has been in since he left.

G. W. Seavers has taken up a reservoir site about 18 miles southeast of Tombstone at a point between Turquoise mountains and a spur of the Dragons.

When Democratic orators tell us this fall that the Democratic party is the silver party, no one in the audience should be so rude as to propose three cheers for Stewart, Jones, Wolcott or Teller. On the other hand don't call a Republican orator down when he tells you that the Republican party is the "Honest Dollar" party. It might embarrass him to tell you what kind of a dollar an honest one is.

Walter Noye, the well known miner who has lived in Tombstone for ten years, died early this morning of pneumonia. He had been chloriding for the most of the time during his residence here, but had recently gone to work in the West Side mine. He was well known all over the coast. He had lived in Pioche, Virginia City and in Idaho camps.

Ivory is now being manufactured of milk which is coagulated and placed under a high pressure. The chalk in the milk is said to give a finer finish to the ivory than it is possible to find in the real article.

Jim Chatham, of the Nogales Herald announces that he has taken sole charge of that paper, which has been running under the name of Meek and Catham.

WORKING ON TRANSCRIPTS.
Courte Reporter Johnny Walker is busy these days, during the adjournment of court, in making out transcripts of judgment in various cases that have been disposed of by Judge Lockwood. He has already three minor cases completed and will this week begin work on the transcript of judgment in the Cunningham-Cosello case. Mr. Walker estimates that there will be at least two thousand single-spaced typewritten pages in the transcript, and expects it to take him several months to complete the job. While there is lots of work connected with this, Mr. Walker and wife expect to enjoy themselves at the same time, for they have erected a cozy tent house at Ramsey Canyon, and will no doubt go most of the copying there. During the absence of Judge Lockwood, Mr. Walker is attending to various matters for the court, having been appointed court commissioner by Judge Lockwood.

Norman Abell, well known Tombstone boy, and for the past three years a student at the University of Arizona, is now located at Douglas, with the National Guard volunteers, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Frances Abell, yesterday. Norman is a young man of sterling ability, and after the University has closed for the summer months joined the hospital corps of the National Guard for border duty. He is feeling fine, according to his letter, and expects to enjoy his adventure.
